Hi Jon,

□□

Thank you so much for a great night!□□ We have heard loads of wonderful comments about the show.□□ We have all been cracking up at the somewhat accidental theme that all the girls had mental illness as Heyward, previous to Vitals, was CEO of a company in NYC that provided mental health benefits.□□□□ That□□□s why she said that going to therapy was not a bad thing!

□□

Anyway, it was a great show.□□ When you are ready, send over those links and we will write you a formal thank you and recommendation.

□□

Have a great day!

□□
